WILL WONDER IF FIGHT TOASTMASTER FELLS OR TELLS 'EM

(Special To The News)
NEW YORK, Feb. 5.—Jack Dempsey invited me to Miami to be master of ceremonies at the Stribling-Sharkey fight to see who will be secretary of a war.

I fell it an honor when you know that Hoover, Coolidge and Smith are all available.

I don't know what the duties of a toastmaster at a fight are, but I would like to tell 'em the advantages of California under a Hoover administration.

We have imported silk worms in California that are working twelve months a year, where in Japan they only worked three. They ain't organized yet.

Let's see, today is Tuesday. Donovan is out of the cabinet on Tuesdays.

Yours, WILL.
P. S.—Watch your tariff, Republicans. Grundy is loose again.

PA NEW OBSERVES

Indications are that a large crowd from all over Western Pennsylvania will be in attendance at the banquet in honor of Paul V. McNutt, national commander, and Charles A. Gerbert, Pennsylvania departmental commander of the American Legion on the night of Lincoln's birthday, February 12. General Chairman Pat Dempsey expects a minimum of 1,500 persons, but from the enthusiasm and interest being manifested by the legionnaires, Young Pa is inclined to believe that the actual figures will exceed this number. Give the boys a hand! Buy a ticket! The affair is but one week from today!

Charlie, the restaurateur, has been having trouble lately at his home. Some vile fellow has been stealing the milk from his front porch. And on this box he placed a lock, to which there are only two keys in existence. One he gave to the milkman and one he gave to his wife. Now he defies the milk thieves. "But," he says, "I suppose they needed the milk more than I do."

I see in last night's News that Wm. Dewberry, Sr., has a silver dollar—date of 1799. I have one dated 1798—I also have half penny 1809—silver half dollar 1829 and half dollar of 1835 and a Colombian half dollar, and a Trade Dollar, and a 10 cent and 25 cent Shillings and a dozen dimes with the word cent.

FRANK G. WOODWORTH,
48 Dean Block, City.

New Castle postal authorities hope that this city will get a new post office building this year. Whether or not it will during the next twelve months remains to be seen, for the committee making the decisions has not as yet been heard from. If ever a city really needed a new post office, or even an addition to the present one, it's New Castle.

Young Pa hears that the Rockefeller-Stewart fight for the control of the Standard Oil of Indiana holds some interest here. Whether or not the "talk" he hears on the streets concerning it mean that the local people have a real pecuniary interest in the struggle we can't say. Nevertheless you hear quite a bit of discussion, and probably will until March 7 when the Indiana matter will be settled.

Just the same, the days are getting longer now.

Step up to The News and take a scout in the window at the Boy Scout first aid trophy which has been donated by R. J. Filly. It is a beauty.

What is the most useful thing that the Boy Scouts have done during the past year? If you know of some particular extra special thing which you think is most important to community, home and so on, drop Pa News a brief line.

All is not roses even in an elevator. Garcon de elevator states that sometimes there are few rest periods throughout the entire day. You get up with one fellow and one more rings the bell.

CARRIES MUCH MAIL

Ultimate Destination Of Pioneer Trip Is Panama Canal Zone

(BULLETIN)
International News Service
NEW ORLEANS, La., Feb. 5.—Col. Charles A. Lindbergh arrived at Tela, Honduras, at 10 o'clock this morning, according to a message to the Tropical Radio Telegraph Company here. The despatch contained no details.

BELIZE, British Honduras, Feb. 5.—Col. Charles A. Lindbergh, who is making the inaugural flight of a new air mail service from the United States to the Panama Canal Zone, hopped off for Tela, Honduras, at 8:12 a. m. (9:12 a. m., eastern standard time).

Lindbergh, who began his flight at Miami, Fla., yesterday morning, flying here by way of Havana, spent the night in Belize. After refueling at Tela he will continue to Managua, Nicaragua, where he will spend tonight. He will complete his journey to Cristobal, Canal Zone, tomorrow.

Given Great Welcome

All of Belize turned out to honor the famous American flyer, who paid his second visit to Belize. He was here about a year ago on his goodwill flight over Latin-America. He landed in the harbor here at 2:55 o'clock yesterday afternoon (3:25 eastern standard time) after successfully flying the first 750-mile leg of his long and venturesome flight.

Double honors were paid to "Lindy" upon his arrival. He was congratulated and entertained not only in honor of his splendid flying achievement, but in recognition of his 27th birthday.

Lindbergh hoped to reach Managua before three o'clock this afternoon (eastern standard time) unless headwinds or motor trouble interfered.

Light Calendar For Senate

Bills

By WILLIAM B. BROWN
International News Service Staff
HARRISBURG, Feb. 5.—Failure of senate committees to report out any bills last night leaves that body with a light calendar today and tomorrow. If a session is held at that time, fourteen measures are scheduled for final action today. Included in them is that of Senator Mansfield, Allegheny, which would permit a referendum on increased pay for policemen and firemen in Pittsburgh.

Two bills about which some debate is sure to center and on the second reading calendar last night were sent back to committee for hearings. Senator Harris, Allegheny, moved recommitment of his bill which would take amateur boxing and wrestling bouts from the jurisdiction of the state athletic commission. A hearing will be held before a final vote.

Senator Woodward, Philadelphia, took the same course for his bill which would permit the city of Philadelphia to purchase the Philadelphia Rapid Transit Company, underlying companies without buy-out of them. The

EMBEZZLEMENT CHARGES CAUSE Absconding Treasurer Is Charged With Taking Nearly Million Of Funds

(International News Service)
ATLANTA, Ga., Feb. 5.—Clinton S. Carnes, absconding treasurer of the Southern Baptist Home Mission Board, today was sentenced to serve from five to seven years in the state prison on a charge of embezzling $80,000 of the board's funds.

Altogether, indictments against the erstwhile Mission Board head charge him with embezzling approximately $1,000,000 of the church's funds.

The sentence was a consent verdict, and Solicitor General John A. Boykin attached a proviso, acceptable to defense counsel, which will prevent Carnes from seeking parole or pardon, under penalty of having a score or more other indictments against him pressed.

Unless Carnes attempts to get a pardon or parole, or to escape from prison or otherwise infract upon the prison rules, he will not have to answer for the other indictments after serving a minimum of five years, it was agreed by counsel.

Neatly and inconspicuously attired, his face sharpened to emaciation, Carnes was brought into the Fulton county superior courtroom this morning by his attorneys, and the arrangement of the consent verdict followed shortly thereafter.

River Pirates Loot Philadelphia Barge

PHILADELPHIA, Feb. 5.—Three river pirates entered the cabin of Captain Peter Peterson, 67, of a barge belonging to the Van Silver Corporation early today and beat him unconscious.

HOOVER TO ATTEND EDISON'S DINNER

By GEORGE E. DURNO
International News Service Staff
BELL ISLE, Miami Beach, Fla., Feb. 5.—Speculation over the makeup of President-Elect Hoover's cabinet was at fever heat here today among the "inside-out-siders" of the last twenty-four hours, a third man has been "appointed" to succeed one of the lucky duo in his present capacity; all three "appointments" have been denied unofficially, and Mr. Hoover himself has blandly refused to either confirm or deny any of these latest efforts on the part of his volunteer cabinet builders.

Latest Guesses

The latest additions—by newspaper appointment—to the official family of the next administration are Henry L. Stimson of New York, now governor-general of the Philippines, as secretary of state; Hay Lyman Wilbur, president of Stanford University, Palo Alto, Calif., as secretary of the interior; and Brig. General Frank R. McCoy, recent supervisor of the Nicaragua elections, as governor-general of the Philippines, succeeding Stimson.

The "inside-outsiders" who have decided upon these appointments are newspaper correspondents who accompanied Mr. Hoover to Florida.

The president-elect meanwhile confided to friends on his last fishing trip that the makeup of his cabinet was going to surprise the speculators, that it was going to be a particularly strong one. But that it would contain some names which yet have not been hit upon.

Receives Callers

Today, Mr. Hoover remained in his offices on the Penny estate, and received a few persons of more or less prominence who happened to be in the vicinity. All of them were "respects" however, with no serious business being discussed.

Marshal Foch Critically Ill

Condition Is Reported As Serious Following Touch Of La Grippe

(International News Service)
PARIS, Feb. 5.—Although it was reported earlier in the day that Marshal Ferdinand Foch was recovering from a sudden attack of indigestion, International News Service learned from an authoritative source this afternoon that the aged soldier's condition is really serious.

The marshal has been suffering from heart and kidney trouble complicated by a touch of the gripple. Indigestion developed after he had taken some milk last night.

Five doctors held a consultation at the bedside today.

Upon their departure, all the doctors refused to make any statement. No bulletin was issued.

Dr. Helitz-Boyer, who was hastily summoned to the bedside just before midnight, was one of the doctors at the consultation.

"The marshal's condition is stationary," Dr. Helitz-Boyer said.

It is reported that members of the Foch household have virtually given up hope. One member of the household was quoted as saying: "We are afraid he will not live out the week."

Early Spring? Read This

Spring here?

Well figure it out for yourself. At least there have been some indications presented which tend to make one believe that the groundhog is a myth and that shadow or no shadow, we will have peach blossoms in April or even earlier.

Up on the North hill, Smith and McQuiston workmen, engaged in constructing a sanitary sewer, found a snake some 12 inches long, which is known as the common garler variety.

The snake was under the skin of ice, alive and apparently happy. This is but one. Out in North Beaver township near Mr. Jackson, boys walking through a swampy field heard the "blub blubs" of a frog. Looking down they state that there were two big fellows grinning all over in a little pocket of ice.

Here are the facts as reported. Figure out the weather for yourself. Apparently they indicate an early spring. Other people have reported robins, red birds and other types of summer fowl still remaining in the district.

LOCAL PASTORS FAVOR MERGER

But General Sentiment Is That Actual Presbyterian-Methodist Consolidation Is Some Years Ahead As Yet

That a merger of the Presbyterian and the Methodist churches of the United States will be effected, although it will not be a thing of the immediate future, and that the merger will work to the mutual benefit of the churches concerned, is the joint opinion of five of New Castle's leading ministers, in interviews today.

All of the ministers heartily favor the merger, they told The News, and all believed that it can be done, as the difference between the two denominations is largely that in the method of government.

Methodist Pastor's Idea

"Although I have not given the matter much thought, on general principles, I am heartily in favor of the merger," stated the Rev. S. L. Maxwell of the Epworth Methodist Episcopal church. "The only difference—that is, the only great difference—between the two churches at the present time is that of government. Their method of working is practically the same. Yes, the big difference is that of government."

"I am sure that all will agree when I say that more difference is found between two Methodist churches in different communities than is found between the Presbyterian and Methodist churches in the same community. The merger would give a unity such as is not being experienced now."

"I am anxious to see what effect the merger, and the talking of the merger, will have on the Methodist Episcopal church North, and the Southern Methodists. Personally, I would much rather see the two Methodist church merge first, and then

NO PACIFIST AMENDMENTS FOR NEW CRUISER BILL

Time Limitation For Building Of Cruisers Is Already Passed In Senate

Senate Rejects Presidential Advice; Bill To Be Passed Finally Today

By WILLIAM K. HUTCHINSON
International News Service Staff
WASHINGTON, Feb. 5.—With a time limitation already adopted against the wishes of President Coolidge, the senate today prepared to enact the administration's new cruiser bill without pacifist amendments.

The battle of the "Little Navy" advocates to prevent immediate initiation of construction work upon five of the 15 cruisers, authorized by the bill, met defeat when the senate rejected the Harrison amendment, giving the president authority to postpone building until Jan. 1, 1932. The vote was 28 to 54, a surprising rejection of presidential advice.

To Start Work This Year

In its present form, the bill directs that work start upon five of the new cruisers this year on five more next year and on the final five in 1931. A joint aircraft carrier, also authorized, must be started before June 30, 1930.

The time for the flight was 18 hours and 21 minutes.

Must Arrive Before 3:31

Captain Hawk, who is piloting a speedy Lockheed-Vega monoplane, must get his landing gear on the ground here before 3:31 p. m. if he is to set a new record. Before he hopped to reach Roosevelt field by one o'clock this afternoon.

Officials of an oil company, for which Captain Hawks is employed as technical adviser, were waiting at the field to greet him. Shortly before noon a small crowd had assembled near the hangars to witness Hawks' landing.

(International News Service)
BRIE, Pa., Feb. 5.—Ben Johnson, 43, died in St. Vincent's hospital here from burns sustained two weeks ago when he made an ineffectual attempt to save the lives of his wife and a small child when fire destroyed their home near here.

Johnson was never told of the death of his wife and child, and for two weeks waged a fight to recover from his burns.

Senate-House Conference On Dry Fund Fails

(BULLETIN) — The conference between Senate and House on the proposal for a $24,000,000 increase in prohibition enforcement funds ended today in an impasse.

The House conferees refused to accept the increase, which the Senate added to the first deficiency appropriation bill and declined to submit the item to a vote of their body. The Senate conferees, led by Senator Warren (R.) of Wyoming, indicated they might ask the Senate to reverse itself and abandon the increase.

Unless some agreement is reached, it appeared the deficiency bill will be killed, even though it carries emergency funds for half a dozen government departments.

LOCAL PASTORS FAVOR MERGER

The consolidation with the Presbyterians. There is only one thing that I fear, I am afraid that the Methodist form of government will somehow be affected, and it is so far, the strongest."

Presbyterian Comment

The merger of the two churches is not a thing of the present, but that it will take some time to accomplish, it declares the Rev. C. B. Winger, pastor of the Central Presbyterian church. But in the next 20 years, Dr. Winger believes, Protestantism will be unified.

"However, I should prefer to see an organization affected in the same denominations, and then a grand merger take place at a later date," concluded Dr. Winger. "Of course, it will take quite a few years yet, but I believe that it will be the present plan of all denominations."

"Eventually, the merger will come," stated the Rev. H. C. Weaver of the First Methodist Episcopal church. "It is a good thing, although I believe that it will take years to bring about. And I believe that it will be easier to unite some branches of the Presbyterian and Methodist churches than it will be to merge some of the churches of the same denominations. But it is all working in the direction of a grand merger."

A union of all the Presbyterian and all the Methodist churches within their own groups should precede the union of the two denominations is the belief of the Rev. D. C. Schenck of the Mahoningtown Methodist Episcopal church. The Rev. Schenck does not believe that the merger could be made at the present time, as there are differences in doctrine. He does think, however, that the consolidation might come.

The Rev. S. E. Irvine of the First United Presbyterian church, when interviewed on the merger, and how it would effect his church, stated that he also believed that it would be a fine thing, although it might take years to accomplish.

NO AMENDMENTS FOR NEW CRUISER BILL

The house approved this provision when it originally enacted the bill a year ago so the time limitation appeared fixed.

The bill itself will be enacted by the senate this afternoon by an overwhelming vote. A poll by International News Service indicated 70 senators supporting it with probably not more than a dozen opposed. A dozen amendments, however, must be disposed of before a final vote is reached.

The amendment, pending this morning, was proposed by Senator Reed (D) of Missouri. It asserts that in case of a treaty, or treaties, with all the principal maritime nations, regulating the conduct of belligerents and neutrals in war at sea, including the inviolability of private property thereon, and embracing as nearly as practicable the principles set forth in Article 12 of the treaty of 1864 negotiated between the United States and Prussia in which negotiations, Benjamin Franklin, Thomas Jefferson and John Adams represented the United States.

Reed offered his amendment as a substitute for a plan, proposed by Senator Borah (R) of Idaho, for the "recodification" of maritime laws, regarding the rights of neutrals, Reed proposed that the recodification be made effective through treaties. It was entirely likely that the senate would agree to this plan, but it will have no effect on the cruiser program.

Other amendments pending included one reducing the building program to five cruisers and one carrier, coupled with a request to the president to summon a new world disarmament conference prior to January 1, 1930 providing that all the cruisers shall be built in government navy yards one requesting the president to call an Anglo-American disarmament conference for the reduction of British and American navies. One abandoning the cruiser program and diverting the $273,000,000 appropriation to the building of roads and bridges throughout the country and one drafting all members of congress under 55 and all men, under 55, having $50,000.00 "to serve in the zone of actual hostilities" in the next war.

STATE SENATE IS READY TO ACT ON FOURTEEN BILLS

Woodward bill will be carried on the postponed calendar until after a public hearing.

Two Bills Passed

Only two bills were passed finally last night and sent to the house. The Kuntze bill requiring weekly tests of gasoline pumps was passed with only one dissenting vote. A measure to regulate chattel mortgages on vehicles, sponsored by Senator McClure, Delaware, also was passed.

Measures to affect the city government of Philadelphia continued last night to hold much of the interest that centers on the introduction of new measures. Chief among the latest crop was one sponsored by Senator S. E. Irvine of the First United Presbyterian church, setting up the machinery for a city manager. Adoption of the city manager plan would be made optional with the electorate and if adopted would continue for four years when another referendum would be taken. The manager would be chosen and could be removed by council.

As in the house a complete set of bills covering the reorganization of the salary survey commission with necessary repealers was introduced as well as those sponsored by the crime commission. Senator Woodward, Philadelphia, introduced a measure which would continue the crime commission for another two years.

Revision Commission

Senator Schantz, Lehigh, sponsored a measure which would permit a popular vote in the fall elections of 1930 on the question of holding a constitutional revision commission. If approved the commission would meet in Harrisburg in January 1932.

The biennial bill, in a somewhat modified form, to control signboards along highways made its appearance last night, sponsored by Senator Buckman, Bucks. Under the Buckman bill absolute control of signs and sites would be vested in the department of highways which would be permitted to charge fees to cover annual inspection of each sign.

Senator Davis, Lackawanna, introduced a measure appropriating $5,000,000 for the purchase of forest lands with the proviso that any unexpended balance at the end of a biennium would not lapse.

Ears "Out Of Line" Local Barber Says

A local tonsorial artist makes the claim that the ears of a man and woman are not in line; in other words, one is higher than the other. Is this a fact or the barber's imagination?

He was playing the "Haircutter's delight" on a man's pate with scissors today, then pronounced his razor to strike off the hair alongside the ears.

"Ever know one ear was 'out of line'?" he asked.

The patron gasped.

"Look 'em over," suggested the barber.

"You're right; the right ear is higher than the left," replied the astonished patron.

"No two ears are in line," said the barber, who remarked that recently in bobbing a young lady's hair he found one ear one inch higher than the other.

HEAR DR. COLEMAN AT WOMAN'S CLUB

A large attendance of the Woman's Club gave close attention yesterday to Dr. Coleman's interesting discussion of current topics in the Highland U. P. church. Dr. Coleman spoke of Mr. Hoover's trip to South America as a stroke of genius. By leaving the country he escaped the army of office seekers, avoided danger of embarrassing entanglements with the present administration and gained good will for our government in South America, which means increased trade with that country. He called attention to the fact that Mr. Hoover has not yet announced his cabinet appointments and has, moreover, given the warning that he himself will do this in good time.

Dr. Coleman said that there is no position in the cabinet in which he would not be pleased to see Mr. Morrow, but he would much rather see him remain in Mexico. That his businesslike methods of dealing with the Mexicans with his strong sense of justice toward them have won their confidence and thereby saved the United States millions and millions of dollars.

The peace pact passed by the Senate can mean nothing without the good faith of the nations joining in it, be back of it. Following this the largest appropriation to the navy in the history of our country makes our position a little problematical.

Twenty-five per cent of our men enlisted in the World War were illiterate. Dr. Coleman would rather see a department of education organized with its head in the cabinet to devise means of getting rid of this illiteracy than this huge sum for defense purposes.

Reparations, the opium problem, the Prince of Wales and his suffering poor and revolutionary processes being evolved in this section of the country in manufactures were other topics discussed.

Chief officer Harry Manning says: "Reach for a Lucky instead of a sweet."

"WHEN I climbed aboard the 'America' after those cold, strenuous hours getting the men off the freighter 'Florida,' there was nothing I wanted so much as a Lucky—'By George,' it tasted wonderful! A Lucky is always refreshing. My tense nerves relaxed, my aching throat was soothed and the whole thrilling adventure just seemed a part of the day's work. As time goes by, and I look back to that memorable night, I'll always remember the wonderful taste of that welcome Lucky. As I went around to visit the men we'd rescued, I found many of them enjoying Luckies, too. We really couldn't wait to get back to our ship and 'Luckies.' As an actual fact in returning to the 'America' I noticed one of our men* rowing with one hand and lighting a 'Lucky' with the other. There's no flavor to equal toasted tobaccos, and I always prefer Lucky Strikes. There's wisdom in the saying: 'Reach for a Lucky instead of a sweet.' It helps a man to keep physically fit and we who follow the sea must always be prepared for any emergency."

*The man mentioned by Chief Officer Manning was Boatswain's Mate Aloys A. Wilson.

This surely confirms the public's confidence in the superiority of Lucky Strike.

Policemen Must Reduce

TOLEDO, Feb. 5.—Policemen of this city are facing the weighty problem of reducing their excess avoidances or getting the "ax".

As the result they are flocking to the gymnasium in the Safety building in their gym suits and giving the electric vibrating machine installed there a thorough workout. The machine is going almost continuously day and night.

And they do say that Gilda Gray would be jealous of the shimmying and shaking some of the fattest cops do while under the influence of the muscle agitators.

The Birth Of The Atlantic

By S. S. MYERS

"I heard it stated the other day that North and South America were once joined to Europe and Africa and that the two bodies became separated. If that is true, what caused the separation and how did they come to be so far apart?"—(V. F. W.)

According to some geologists there was a time in the past history of the earth when practically all of the land surface of the globe formed one vast continent. What is now North and South America were joined to western Europe and Africa.

This theory is based on the supposition that there are two or more distinct layers of the earth's crust—the outer layer, on which we live, rests upon an inner layer more dense but less solid, with a marked difference between the two layers. Then, there came a time when, because of internal disturbances and upheavals, the western portion of the vast continent was rent asunder and, slipping westward on the inner layer, formed a separate body. This slipping process continued, partly because of the upheaval and partly because of the earth's rotation on its axis until the separated land found permanent anchorage. Thus the Atlantic ocean was formed separating the old world from the new.

There are some things which go to substantiate this theory, imaginary as it may seem. They tell us to study the shore lines of Europe and Africa with those of North and South America—to shove the western bulge of northern Africa into the hollow area between North and South America and observe how neatly the shore lines fit between the continents north and south. Of course the winds and waves obliterated some of the minor details, but the main outlines are there.

Furthermore it is pointed out that the region of the north pole is a sunken continent, showing that at one time there must have been vast changes in the land surface of the earth, and that while the greater portion of the land is in the northern hemisphere, there seems to be a creeping movement southward with all continents tapering out to a point at the southern extremity.

These, together with fossil remains of extinct European and African animals found in America, the story of the fabled Atlantis, the evidence of a culture found among some of the prehistoric peoples of Mexico and Central America—a culture entirely foreign to that of the native Indians whom the Spaniards found here, are all used to substantiate this theory which, although only a theory, is interesting and appeals to the imagination.

No man is justified in doing evil on the ground of expediency.—Roosevelt.

WHO'S LOONEY NOW?

It only happens at La Guinan's.

The zero hour, of course, is about dawn. Over there, frantically, is Bill Boyd, the legit actor, throwing paper balls at Lee Tracey of "Front Page", who flings them back after soaking them in water. On this side of the room the head of a famous taxicab fleet is yelling himself hoarse at the undraped sirens. Reggie Waterbury, the polo player, permits a snake dancer to twine her reptile about his neck, and the Count of Senepace or Other loses himself among the dancing girls during a routine drowned by the shrieking clarinets and noisy drums.

For a striking contrast, turn to the other side of the room, and see there, sitting at a ringside table for four, a quiet, gentle and unassuming person, who merely takes it all in, and probably wonders why he was once committed to an asylum.

High finance will explain all that to you, as easily as Einstein explains relativity. But you don't understand the explanation.

Britain is on a gold basis, solid as a rock, yet last week the virtuous pound sterling fell to the lowest point, with one exception, since 1926, when strikes crippled British industry.

American financiers bought $25,000,000 gold from Britain. Low sterling exchange facilitated that, and Britain grieved.

High finance sometimes imitates wolves that gayly eat a wounded comrade.

When the Federal Reserve bank was suggested, high finance protested, saying it would bring ruin. Now these financiers tell you the federal reserve has saved and will save the country from panic.

This, the richest country in the world, is on a usury basis, business men paying seven per cent for money, and more, stock investors paying up to 12 per cent.

In France, "impoverished by the war," business borrows all it needs at four per cent and less.

THE SMALL BROWN "STUMP" RUNS AWAY

It was on a brisk morning that Peter started for a walk in the forest. As he trudged through the thick leaves he remembered the day he had saved the life of the Old Oak Tree, and the tree, in gratitude, had given him the magic power of speech with all the birds of the air and creatures of the field and the forest. His fingers caressed the tail of a blue lizard which kept him from harm in his wanderings.

At the edge of the woods he spied a beautiful tree in its autumn dress. "Why, that tree looks just as if it was on fire!" cried Peter, looking at its leaves which Jack Frost, with his magic brush, had painted flame color.

"And that little tree over in the corner—it shines like a pile of gold! Ooh! whoever would think that an old stump could be as pretty as that stump yonder. Why, the moss on it is just as green as if it was the middle of summer. How glad I am that I chose the woods. If it is as lovely as this outside, what will it be in among the trees? I'll bet there'll be lots of things to see."

With a shout the boy dashed straight into the woods, scuffling up the dried leaves as he ran and laughing just for the joy of being a boy in the open on such a beautiful day.

But by and by, as he went farther and farther into the woods, it grew quieter and quieter, and by and by the boy grew quiet, too. It didn't seem just right, somehow, to make a noise that would wake the stillness.

"I guess I'll make believe I am an Indian," said the boy under his breath, and he stepped softly upon the leaves, trying his very best not to make them rustle. There was something on the ground in front of him that looked like a brown stump. What was it? Peter crept forward to see.

Nearer and nearer crept Peter toward the queer brown hummock. At last he stretched out his hand to touch it, when something happened that made his heart jump up into his throat. So startled was he that he didn't notice an old tree root sprawled across his path, and down Peter went, head over heels among the leaves.

"Quit! Quit! Quit!" The small brown stump that wasn't a stump at

"I GUESS I'LL MAKE BELIEVE I AM AN INDIAN," SAID THE BOY, and he stepped softly upon the leaves, trying his very best not to make them rustle.

Peter sat up and brushed himself off.

"That is the worst fright I have had yet," remarked he, aloud. "Playing with the bugs and birds as long as I have ought to make me used to most anything, but I am never ready for these all of a sudden folk. Now, who could that creature that I took for a stump have been? Why couldn't he have made himself known without rushing off like that?"

"My, but he was angry! And I wouldn't have hurt him for anything. Maybe if I hurry I can catch him, and when he knows that I didn't even see him and wouldn't have scared him if I had known he was there that he will make friends with me. I believe he went this way. These leaves don't seem to be quite so thick."

Your Income Tax

Thousands of inquiries have reached the Bureau of Internal Revenue relative to changes in tax legislation. The purpose of the bureau is to answer these questions in a series of newspaper statements, based on the revenue act of 1928, approved May 28, 1928.

The rates of income tax and surtax applicable to individual income, and the personal exemption of individuals and credits for dependents, remain unchanged. The normal tax rate is 1 1/2 per cent on the first $4,000 in excess of personal exemption, credits for dependents, etc., 3 per cent on the next $4,000, and 5 per cent on the balance. The surtax rates apply to net income in excess of $10,000. The maximum rate is 20 per cent, which applies to net income in excess of $100,000.

The rate of tax on the income of corporations is reduced from 13 1/2 per cent to 12 per cent. The same rate applies to the income of insurance companies, reduction with respect to their class of taxpayers being from 12 1/2 per cent to 12 per cent. The credit allowed a domestic corporation, the net income of which is $25,000 or less, is increased from $2,000 to $3,000.

"I am utterly enthusiastic about Lux Toilet Soap," says pretty Mary Nolan, Universal star. "Even the most expensive French soaps have not kept my skin so beautifully smooth."

REALLY exquisite skin does win hearts—Hollywood knows how surely it wins them!

"If a girl wants popularity she must have a lovely smooth skin," says William K. Howard, Pathe director. "Without rare beauty of skin a screen star can never hope to win her public, no matter what else she may have."

Nine out of ten screen stars use Lux Toilet Soap. You have only to look at Jeannette Loff's skin, or Mary Nolan's, or Nancy Carroll's, to see how exquisite this delicately fragrant white soap keeps the skin. Small wonder that every one of the great film studios has made Lux Toilet Soap the official soap in all dressing rooms!

You'll love it yourself—its generous lather is so caressing, and leaves your skin so velvety. Use it in your bath, too—and for the shampoo, as the screen stars do.

Reserve Officers To Meet Thursday

Meeting Will Be Discussed
By Officers

MEN ARE URGED TO TAKE NEW COURSES

Reserve officers of the New Castle district will meet Thursday evening at the offices of Captain Melvin I. Craig, 422 Temple building, Thursday evening, Feb. 7, at eight o'clock. At this meeting the problem which was given out last Thursday will be discussed and new problems will be assigned.

"Not only the reserve officers required to attend these unit meetings if they want to keep their commissions or to advance in the army, but they must also take correspondence courses which are offered by the United States War Department," declares Captain Craig, who is in charge of the reserve officers' work in this district.

"These courses are offered in all branches of the army's activities and their mission is to provide a method whereby a reserve officer can receive systematic training so that he can better perform his duties and also so that he can receive promotion at an earlier date.

"All subjects required for the promotion of second lieutenants to first lieutenants, of first lieutenants to captains and captains to majors, are included in the War Department courses. Any officer in the reserve corps, national guard or any qualified civilian, are eligible for the courses."

Captain Craig urges reserve officers to get in touch with him immediately concerning the courses.

Sure Way to Get Rid of Dandruff

Girls—if you want plenty of thick, beautiful, glossy, silky hair, do by all means get rid of dandruff, for it will starve your hair and ruin it if you don't.

It doesn't do much good to try to comb or wash it out. The only sure way to get rid of dandruff is to dissolve it; then you destroy it entirely.

To do this, get about four ounces of ordinary liquid arvon; apply it at night when retiring; use enough to moisten the scalp and rub it in gently with the finger tips.

By morning, most, if not all, of your dandruff will be gone, and two or three more applications will completely dissolve and entirely destroy every single sign and trace of it.

You will find, too, that all itching and itching of the scalp will stop, and your hair will look and feel a hundred times better.

You can get liquid arvon at any drug store. Four ounces is all you will need, no matter how much dandruff you may have. This simple remedy never fails.

New License Number System Is Planned In State Next Year

HARRISBURG, Feb. 5.—Detailed plans which will be used in the numbering of automobile license plates for 1930 were announced today by the Department of Highways. Twenty letters of the alphabet will be used and 99,999 will be the highest numerical combination issued.

Highway officials estimate that the new system will result in a saving of approximately $70,000 yearly in material and postage. The plates next year as before will be made of steel. Bids were received on aluminum plates which are lighter in weight but were rejected because of the higher cost.

One of the chief benefits that highway officials see in the new system is a marked reduction in the demand for special license numbers and combinations. Low numbers will lose much of their charm. At present to get a number less than 1000 either in the first numerical or "A" series requires the approval of the Governor's office. Next year anyone may get a low number without getting the endorsement of the county chairman.

New tags will be 5 by 10 inches and 6 by 12 in the entire passenger, commercial, dealer and omnibus series. The only tags of the old maximum size, 6 by 15, will be the traction engine series of which 5,299 are ordered.

The first series of passenger tags will run from 1 to 99,999 in the same manner as the 1929 series. "A" will mark 100,000 instead of the now familiar "million" series.

Beginning with A, the second series will run to 99,999, followed by B to 299,999 and so on to 999,999. The letter will then slide back to second position, a new series starting 0A to 9A999, 0B to 9B999, etc., to 929,999.

A third position series, the letter serving as the third digit, will begin with 00A and continue to 99299. The fourth position series will run 000A to 99929. A fifth position series will run 0000A to 99992.

The only series in the passenger class employing two letters on a plate is the last, beginning with AA, 1, 2, 3, etc., to AA999; AB, 1, 2, 3, etc., to B9999 and so on to Z9999. The will be seen that comparatively small numbers will represent the highest or latest tag issued for the year.

Classification for filing will follow alphabetical order in the main with numerical subdivisions. Tag "CK409" will mean just what it shows, although it may be the 994,305th license to be issued.

Commercial and dealer licenses will be recognized at once by an unvarying order of carrying two letters after the number. Commercial will begin with 00AA and run to 999VE, various classes of trucks each allotted individual letter combinations.

Dealer tags will provide for 30,000 total issue but the possible series will by no means be exhausted. The 1930 issue will run from 00KA to 999YK.

Busses will continue to carry the distinctive "O" series, ranging from 01 to 09899.

State-owned cars, the judiciary, legislative, consular and National Guard will employ numeral designations with a word or words defining the class.

WAR TIME LETTERS BY COL. LEASURE

Written From Battlefront During Civil War

From Papers of Late Col. J. S. DuShane

I take the first spare minute this morning to drop a note by the way-side. I have been relieved of my division command by General Burney, who met us day before yesterday at Upperville, near Ashby's Gap. He seems like a very efficient officer, and I am truly relieved of a responsibility that I never desired and which was more than I felt justified in assuming in the face of the enemy on the first attempt. I am in command of the 3rd brigade. We have been marching every day and night for a week past. It puts me in mind of the marches before the last battle of

Col. Daniel Leasure
Picture Property of T. A. Preston,
1218 East Washington Street.

Bull Run and strangely enough, we are again approaching Bull Run from a direction opposite to the one which we formerly approached it.

We anticipate a battle daily. My brigade again came to the extreme front last night and found that the enemy had left about an hour before my arrival.

I suppose that you are better posted on the general movements than we are, as we are told nothing, and have seen no newspapers for a week, and don't expect to soon. I have received no letters from home since the one I answered from Waterford. We are now near Chester Gap in the Blue Ridge mountains and are in the midst of a violent snow storm. The first we have encountered.

I have made application to have Jeff relieved from recruiting service and sent to Harnsby to relieve the drafted men to fill up the regiment, as the governor has ordered all regiments to send officers to get the men to fill it up. When Jeff gets that order or is relieved, let Jimmy come with him, but do not let him enlist there. Let him come here first. If Jeff is sure that he can get through without stopping over at Camp Curtin or at Washington, Jeff might go along with the drafted men from Harrisburg with a little management.

I presume the order to relieve Jeff from the recruiting service and his appointment to assist in bringing on the drafted men, creeps through my mind. I will . . . as to how Jimmy had to come along . . . paymaster here yet, though I have ten cents left yet. We look for the paymaster next week. We are now on the way to Waterloo on the Rappahannock River, some six miles from here where it is reported that the enemy is attempting to cross. My own health and Gordy's are good.

We have a new mess chest which we purchased in Washington and it has a sheet iron cooking stove in it and we have a stove pipe set up in our tent, keeping us rather comfortable. The first storm of snow sets hard on the troops, especially on the South Carolinians.

We are lying in a field here, very well sheltered, all things considered, but we expect to move as soon as some troops now passing in the front here get past us with their wagon trains. I hope to get a letter from you when the next mail arrives. If one should catch up to us, I fear that most of our movements are a little late for the season, but still I would cheerfully undergo a winter campaign end the war and I think it would do it, if vigorously prosecuted.

At any rate, we could not suffer more in battle than in winter quarters. My leg gives me no trouble and my general health is greatly improved. I am gaining flesh again. I must close hastily by sending my dear love to you all, and will write the first time we stop long enough to let my trunk catch up to me.

God bless you all.

LEASURE.

FAREWELL GIVEN FATHER DI RANNA

guests of the occasion were seated about beautifully decorated tables and the program of the evening got underway.

Father DeMita speaks. Father DeMita was the first speaker of the evening and spoke feelingly of the younger generation, that he had the associations of himself and Father DiRanna during the past two years and what it had meant to him, and the parish to have Father DiRanna as his assistant.

He said that he could not call it a pleasant occasion for him, because he had not even expected the transfer of Father DiRanna. To him, he said, it was really an occasion of great sorrow. He said no one was more shocked than himself when he learned that Father DiRanna was not to be permitted to remain and conduct the wonderful work among the young people of the parish which he had inaugurated.

Father DeMita then spoke of knowing Father DiRanna as a boy in Pittsburgh and his family, when he was doing missionary work among the Italian people of the diocese. How a sister of Father DiRanna had taught him his first English. He said that he had always felt that the DiRanna family was really his own family and it was with great happiness that 21 years after the youthful DiRanna boy had served him as altar boy, that he should become his assistant. He had hoped that Father DiRanna was to remain with him until selected to lead some parish. He said, however: "We must bow to our superior. It is our duty, and the will of God. I wish him the best of luck wherever he may be and hope he may return some day to assist me again, as we need him."

Appreciate Work.

E. Shenkan of the Hane Furniture company was the next speaker and stated that it was an honor to him to be present. He said his acquaintance with Father DiRanna had been one of pleasure, a pleasure more wonderful than words could express. He and Father DiRanna, he said, had come here about the same time from the same city and that once they were acquainted and he had become aware of the ambition of Father DiRanna to advance the interests of become more and more interested in the work of Father DiRanna. He expressed the hope that influence might be brought about to bear that would return Father DiRanna here to complete his work.

William Chill, choir director of the parish, was then called upon and in a few well chosen words expressed the reason that Father DiRanna had proved such a success in the parish. He had been one of the young people himself, was just like a brother to all, he said. He hoped he might be returned. Antonio Lambert followed with an address in Italian in which he expressed the sentiment of the parish in regard to Father DiRanna.

Others speaking along the same lines and expressing the hope that he might be returned to this city were Frank Cole, H. K. Bell, Anthony Villano, Mike Ross, Anthony DeCarbo, James Cherol and D. D. Vallensi.

Then Peter P. Capitola, as toastmaster, made a few remarks in which he said among other things: "We are here to honor a man whom we have all learned to love, and whom we have affectionately learned to call Pat, not that we have forgotten his calling, but rather because he was one of us. We should not be looking upon this occasion with sorrow but rather with pleasure, because if we sorrow, we are selfish, as this means his advancement. He must meet all kinds of people and learn to know their ways, so that when he is called to a parish of his own. We need him here but wish him God Speed wherever he goes and we hope it is home to New Castle."

J. A. DiFonso, president of the Holy Name society of St. Vitus church, expressed his thanks to the members of the parish for the money given for the purse for Father DiRanna, then presented it to the guest of honor.

Father DiRanna Speaks.

Father DiRanna then spoke, saying among other things: "Words will not express my feeling tonight. It was hard to come back 'home' but not to stay. I was satisfied here and especially with Father DeMita as my superior, because he was more like a father to me than my superior in charge. I left here with a heavy heart and it is hard to overcome my desire to remain here. While here I did everything I could for the advancement of my people, not for myself. I would have come back tonight just for the joy of being here. It is not the parish for which I care but for the friendships I have made. I hope I may always have them. I hope that it may be granted me the privilege of returning here to complete my work and I will make a personal appeal to that end. But whatever may be my lot, I will always remember St. Vitus parish and its people.

Arguments Are Made For A New Trial In Kathryn Klee Case

Court Takes Papers And A Decision Will Be Handed Down At Later Date

Arguments for a new trial were heard by Judges Hildebrand and Chambers yesterday afternoon in the case of the commonwealth against Kathryn Klee, who was convicted of violating the prohibition laws at the last term of court.

Arguments for Miss Klee were made by Attorney Adams, while District Attorney J. Elder Bryan appeared for the commonwealth. In connection with the arguments a petition was presented in behalf of the defendant in which the sufficiency of the evidence given by the principal witness for the commonwealth was called in question. The principal argument of defendant's counsel was to the effect that the verdict was against the weight of the evidence, while the district attorney's position was that there was ample evidence to warrant the action of the jury in returning a verdict of guilty.

The court took the papers in the case and an opinion will be handed down later.

Mr. and Mrs. Brown will reside in Coleman.

Keep Your Stomach Young and Sweet

Every nice bit of food you eat MUST be digested, and the waste matter eliminated. That's sure. If your stomach is sluggish and old, from the excessive acids which keep eating away the gastric juices, you must dissolve them, or you never will be free from indigestion, sour risings, bloating and drowsiness after you eat.

Get a package of Peppermint Cure from your nearest drug store and chew one of the tablets after meals. Instantly the distress is relieved, it dissolves the acids, sweetens the stomach and you will have an appetite again like you had when a child.

All drug stores have Peppermint Cure. More than 5 million packages are used a year.

To Observe Church Training Night

Instruction in The Fundamentals Of Christian Faith At Croton M. E. Church

Plans have been made to make Wednesday evening of each week a church training night at Croton Avenue M. E. church. The recent campaign, beginning with the visitation campaign in the early part of January, which was followed by two weeks of special meetings in the church, concluding on Sunday evening, has resulted in bringing a large class of new members into this church, and these persons, with all the present members of the church and Sunday school who desire to join the class, will meet promptly at 7:30 o'clock for lecture and instruction in the fundamental teachings of the Christian faith. The standard catechism of the Methodist church will be used as a textbook and guide and the pastor will use the blackboard, charts and stereopticon views as they may be used in instruction.

A second class will follow at 8:30 for those who may be interested in teacher training and this class will be under competent leadership. Other items will also be added to make an evening adapted to persons of every age from the youngest to the oldest.

Persons having no church affiliation, or persons who are members elsewhere, but who do not have church engagements for this evening in the week, are invited to attend the activities at Croton church.

really are doing. There will be booths of every nature—tagelany, pottery, making, woodcraft, leathercraft and a multitude of displays of the activities of the 300 lads in the county who are being taught every imaginable sort of thing. Every troop will be represented.

At the exhibition the activities will not only be presented, but the Scouts will actually do all of this work before the people who visit the exposition.

Good Turn Day
Saturday will be civic good turn day. Every Scout and every troop in the county will be out doing their utmost for the community in which he lives. Bird houses will be erected as a part of the conservation of wild life.

On Sunday all Scouts will go to their own respective churches. Monday will be Scout day in the schools and there will be special Scout programs in the rooms where Scouts are registered.

It will be a gala week in Scoutdom here, and according to J. Lee Calahan, who heads a capable staff of Scout leaders, everything is in readiness.

All of the Scouts will wear their uniforms throughout the week. Scouts who do not have their suits will wear the official neckerchief continuously throughout the anniversary week.

The work that Scouts do in the county varies from bird house building to stamping out grass fires. There is no limit to what the Scouts have done. In the report of County Executive J. Lee Calahan the types of work which have been done are listed under 24 different classifications.

In the past year the lads have erected many bird houses and feeding shelters, have assisted the county game protector, have organized bands and bugle corps, sold many benefit tickets, located a number of lost children, aided materially in the checking of fires, acted as ushers at a number of public affairs, assisted in handling the crowds at various civic gatherings and celebrations, and in addition, each did his own good turn each day.

These are but a few of the things that Boy Scouts in the county have done, are doing and will continue to do throughout the coming months.

The Scouts always seem to be ready to assist any time and any place.

One of the major features in the Scout education is that all of the hikes are educational. The boys must make charts of the county roads, various districts and old historic spots are traced on maps, located from available data and recorded for future use.

During the year five new troops were organized, while but two were dropped. Statistics reveal that many of the Scouts reached the graduation age and thus much of the decrease in numbers was caused.

Four hundred, or approximately half, of the Scouts in the county were able to attend the camping session during the past summer.

This is but a partial report; in fact, a minute report of what the Scouts have done in the past year. At the present time plans are under way for a countywide contest in first aid work. This contest will take place about March 1.

Daughter Is Left Paltry $200,000 By Late Mother

Son Bequeathed Sum Of $5,000,000 By Late Mrs. Margaret Huntington McCarthy

(International News Service)
GREENWICH, Conn., Feb. 5.—Margaret Gowen was cut off with a mere $200,000 in the will of her mother, Mrs. Margaret Huntington Gowen McCarthy, Standard Oil heiress, because she had been "unkind to her and favored her father."

Dr. James McCarthy, blond young alumnus of Yale, was bequeathed $5,000,000 of the $7,000,000 estate and assigned more than a quarter of a million more before Mrs. McCarthy's death because he was "a very good fellow."

This in effect, will be the basis of the story told on the witness stand in the bitter legal battle in Greenwich, over the late society matron's will, on Wednesday by Justice William L. Tierney of Greenwich, defense counsel and one of the executors.

It was learned that a few days before her death on January 11 when Mrs. McCarthy visited the offices of Justice Tierney to revamp a previous will she made several casual remarks which explained her attitude towards those who were to benefit by her bequests.

New Castle Man Ends 25 Years' Health Search

Gets Amazing Results From Ten Herbs; Case Had Resisted Many Medicines

Whence comes the amazing power of Ten Herbs to banish disorders of the stomach, liver, kidneys and bowels that have persisted for years—to restore perfect health after the sufferer has endured years of misery, having ling tried medicine after medicine in vain? This question daily is being asked the Ten Herbs Man, who is at Eckerd's of New Castle, Inc., 30 East Washington Street, this city, where he is daily demonstrating this popular preparation.

"For 25 years I had been a sufferer from stomach trouble and all its kindred ailments," was the recent statement of Mr. Peter Shoaf, 315 1/2 Sycamore Street, New Castle, to the Ten Herbs Man. "I tried many medicines, but until I used Ten Herbs, I found only temporary relief," continued Mr. Shoaf, who is 73 years of age. "My stomach was so disordered that everything I ate caused gas and retching. I had catarrh of the stomach, and in the morning would gag and retch and at times bring up a thick black phlegm."

"My nerves were in a terrible condition. At times everything would turn black and I would stagger so that I would be afraid to go out. My blood pressure was very high. My liver did not function properly, and I had severe bilious attacks and frightful headaches. I had to arise several times at night and this naturally disturbed my rest. The last 25 years was a constant endeavor to get my health back."

"Ten Herbs put me on the way to good health. It caused my stomach to function like Nature intended, so that food digested properly, doing away with gas, retching and that very uncomfortable feeling after eating. My nerves have become normal. That feeling as though I would fall has passed away, leaving my head clear. Headaches have been relieved. My liver is working like it should, and my complexion is no longer sallow. I have been helped so much that I am no longer troubled at night. I sincerely recommend Ten Herbs to others. If your medicine does for them half that it did for me, they will be thankful that they tried it."

The Ten Herbs Man is at Eckerd's of New Castle, Inc., 30 East Washington Street, this city, where he is daily meeting the public and explaining the merits of this medicine.

FORMER STATE SENATOR'S TRIAL IS UNDER WAY

(International News Service)

PITTSBURGH, Feb. 5.—Guy W. Brown, former state senator from Fayette county, went on trial in federal court here today on two indictments charging embezzlement and misapplication of funds of the Fayette City National Bank and the First National Bank of Webster.

The indictments, which contain 38 counts against the former vice president of the two banks, charge Brown with diverting approximately $137,000.

A jury was selected yesterday during the absence of Judge R. M. Gibson, who presided today. Brown's brother, Jesse R. Brown, also a vice president of the now defunct banks, is to be tried with the former state senator on charges of misapplication of the bank's funds at a later date.

The charges under which former Senator Brown went on trial today grew out of the failure of the two banks, with a loss to the Fayette City institution of $1,400,000 and $150,000 to the Webster bank. In addition to being charged with irregularities in the two banks, Brown is charged with misapplication of $25,000 in funds of the home mission fund of the Red-stone Presbytery, on deposit in the Webster bank.

Approximately 60 witnesses were expected to testify in the first of the Brown trials and court attaches made preparations for an extended legal fight. The two brothers, indicted by the federal grand jury at Erie last year, were active in the banks after the president, Andrew W. Brown, was stricken by a long illness.

Following failure of the two institutions federal agents made detailed investigation of the situation and the indictments against the brothers followed.

Bank inspectors and federal attaches are quoted as saying that the books of the two institutions were in such condition that they were unable to determine exactly how much money was missing or diverted.

During Judge Gibson's absence in Ford City yesterday attending the funeral of a brother-in-law selection of a jury went forward, the oath being administered to each later.

Major Spatz Is Given Tribute

Boyerstown, Pa., Pays Honor To Commander Of "Question Mark" And His Crew

SPENT BOYHOOD IN PENNSYLVANIA TOWN

BOYERTOWN, Pa., Feb. 5.—Major Carl Spatz, commander of the record-breaking airplane "Question Mark," was awarded a new diamond studded question mark pin and a wrist watch today which were presented to him by his friends and neighbors here last night at a reception given the night aviator and his three junior officers, Captain Ira C. Baker, Lieut. E. R. Quesada and Sgt. J. E. Hoer.

The members of the Question Mark crew in its historic flight flew here yesterday from Washington to be entertained at Major Spatz's boyhood home. More than 1,000 friends and acquaintances were present at the dinner and reception.

Adjutant General Frank D. Beary, of Harrisburg, served as Governor Fisher's representative while Captain Charles Gelbert, of Tanawana, and John M. Dervin, of Philadelphia, represented the American Legion.

CAPTAIN HAWKS MAKING EFFORT TO BREAK RECORD

Under to avoid unfavorable winds. It is estimated that he may be making 140 miles an hour or better.

The plane carried 475 gallons of gasoline at the take-off. The distance to be traversed by the route selected by Hawks—across parts of Texas, Oklahoma, Missouri, Illinois, Kentucky, Ohio, Pennsylvania and New Jersey—is approximately 2,700 miles.

Captain Hawks is thirty-two years old. He is a former test pilot and instructor in the United States army air service.

(International News Service)

Piloting a Lockheed monoplane, Captain Frank Hawks, accompanied by Oscar Grubb, today was believed to be still speeding eastward from Los Angeles in an attempt to break the transcontinental non-stop air record.

The present record is held by Art Goebel, winner of the Dole flight from Oakland to Honolulu. Last year Goebel flew from Los Angeles to New York in 18 hours and 58 minutes.

After a run of 2,000 feet, Captain Hawks got his plane in the air at Los Angeles yesterday at 5:37:30. The plane is capable of making a speed of 100 miles an hour and the pilot stated that he would push the plane to the limit in an effort to break the record. He asserted he hoped to land at either Roosevelt or Curtiss field after a flight of sixteen or seventeen hours.

The ship was loaded with 475 gallons of gasoline and 20 gallons of oil when it left here. The armen carried a small amount of food, consisting of chocolate, sandwiches, coffee and water.

It was learned today, is making his first trip out of California. He is the chief mechanic for the Lockheed air plant at Los Angeles.

Capt. Hawks was believed to have been somewhere in the midwest at 9 o'clock this morning, according to officials at airports in the vicinity of Kansas City.

No definite reports had been received from any of the southwestern fields over which Capt. Hawks was expected to fly. An unconfirmed report to a Wichita, Kansas, airport, told of a plane flying over Guymon, Okla., at daybreak. It was believed to be the Lockheed plane.

Mine Inspector Is Given Appointment

(International News Service)

HARRISBURG, Feb. 5.—Governor John S. Fisher today named William L. McCoy, Nemacolin, Greene county, as a bituminous mine inspector in the seventeenth district to fill the vacancy caused by the death of John I. Pratt.

At the same time the governor re-appointed five members of the bituminous mine inspectors board. They were: Archibald Saxe, of Ellsworth, Washington county; J. William Weller, of Phillipsburg, Clearfield county; James Craig, of Yatesboro, Armstrong county; John E. Struble, of Conneysville, and William Lamont, of Elmora, Cambria county.

HUNDREDS OF NEW BILLS INTRODUCED AT HOUSE SESSION

provide for legislation governing the recommendations of the crime commission. These bills were sponsored by Representatives Staudenmeier, Schuykill, Stadlander, Allegheny, Wilson, McKean, Marcus, Allegheny, and Turner, Delaware. The bills were referred to committee today.

Martin Files Report.

Auditor General Edward Martin filed a report with the house at its opening session setting forth the amount of delinquency in gasoline tax collections. The report was asked for in a resolution introduced by Representative Talbot, Delaware, and adopted by the house a week ago. It showed that during the nine years gasoline taxes have been collected in Pennsylvania $2,682,811 remains uncollected at this time. During the same period the auditor general's department collected $75,960,110.

The report was ordered printed in the journal of the house and no additional action on it is expected at this time. Representative Talbot said he is convinced that the present system of making collections should be changed and that the collections should be made from wholesalers and distributors. He proposes to introduce legislation covering his ideas on the subject.

Senate Adopts Resolution.

The senate reported to the house that it had adopted the house resolution providing for the appointment of a committee of three representatives and two senators to confer with Washington officials and arrange for Pennsylvania's participation in the inauguration of President-elect Hoover. Speaker Hess appointed Representative Turner, Delaware, Good-nough, Cameron, and Marcus, Allegheny, members of the committee on the part of the house.

Later a bill providing an appropriation of $10,000 to the department of military affairs to defray the expenses of Pennsylvania's part in the inauguration was introduced by Representative Turner.

Theatre Ticket Bills.

Representative Tahl, Philadelphia, introduced a bill which would prohibit the sale of amusement tickets at a price higher than that printed on the face of the ticket. Another amendment bill, sponsored by Representative Root, Philadelphia, would prohibit the selling of tickets for admissions to theatres when there are no seats available.

Another Sunday sports and amusements bill reached the house and will be referred to committee today. The bill was introduced by Representative Wettach, Allegheny, and permits sports, concerts and other Sunday amusements but does not permit admission charges except when the proceeds are to be used for charitable or educational purposes.

Bickett Puts Bill In.

"Talkies" received their first official notice in the house when Representative Burke, Philadelphia, introduced a bill amending the moving picture laws by giving the state board of censors the right to pass on all dialogues and sounds in connection with pictures.

Highways constructed in townships with the aid of township rewards would be maintained in part by state funds under the provisions of a bill introduced by Representative Bickett, Lawrence. The measure appropriates $1,000,000 to assist in maintaining township reward roads. Another bill by the same member provides that the funds be distributed on the same basis as township rewards.

Salaries of state capitol policemen would be increased $50 per month under the terms of a bill offered by Representative Dunn of Allegheny county.

Tax repeal bills continue to make their appearance and the latest to be presented is sponsored by Representative Baldridge, Allegheny. The bill would discontinue the tax on direct inheritance.

COL. LINDBERGH CONTINUES ON SOUTHERN TRIP

He did not know how long he would be detained at Tela, but expected to be there less than an hour.

Carries Much Mail

Arrangements were made in advance to have the fuel ready so that Lindbergh would not be unduly delayed in getting away.

The giant plane carried nearly 350 pounds of mail when it headed out on the second leg of its trip. Some mail had been left here, but no additional mail was taken on board.

Lindbergh carried a heavy automatic pistol and ammunition in event he was forced down somewhere in the trackless jungle of Central America.

His route has already been mapped and if he should meet with an accident searching planes would know just what line of travel to look for him. But Lindbergh was confident there would be no accident. In conversation with officials he spoke as though he considered the flight already an accomplished fact.

TELA, Honduras, Feb. 5.—After refueling his plane here, Col. Charles A. Lindbergh hopped off at 10:40 a. m. (11:40 a. m. eastern standard time) for Managua, Nicaragua, to complete the second leg of his Miami-Panama flight. Lindbergh was here less than an hour, having arrived at 10 o'clock from Belize, British Honduras.

Score Of Measures Are Introduced In State Senate Today

Administration Measures Effecting Various Departments Make Appearance

(International News Service)

HARRISBURG, Feb. 5.—A score of administration measures affecting various departments of the state government made their appearance shortly after the senate convened today.

A series of bills sponsored by Senator Scott, Centre, are intended to give a greater measure of protection to mine workers. They give the department of mines supervision over electrical equipment in anthracite mines to the same extent as that in bituminous workings and specify other additional safety measures.

Installation of telephones to connect the principal shafts with an outside office would be required as well as making rock dusting compulsory in mines where it is deemed necessary.

Substitution of ten industrial farms for the county prisons also was proposed. Present county prisons would be used only for offenders not brought to trial and the building of ten institutions would relieve crowding that now exists in many county prisons.

Hop To Iron Out Difficulties In Allentown Over Police Captains Love Affair

(International News Service)

ALLENTOWN, Pa., Feb. 5.—The breach of promise suit filed by Miss Marie Schleicher against police Captain Albert C. Miller, in which Miss Schleicher asks for $25,000 following what she termed a seven-year love affair, will be settled out of court this afternoon, according to Dallas Gargere, attorney for the woman.

A conference was to be held this afternoon between the parties concerned at which all angles of the case were to be ironed out, Gargere said.

Meanwhile, apparently relieved at the indication that a settlement was near, the newlywed police captain came out of hiding. He refused to discuss the case or comment on Miss Schleicher's statement that he "is a big crybaby".

Coast Guardsmen Effect Rescue Of Schooner's Crew

REGIS IN FLORIDA

(International News Service)

WASHINGTON, Feb. 5.—Batting against heavy seas, a Coast Guard crew has succeeded in rescuing eight men aboard the four-masted schooner Balmbridge, which went ashore off Bodie island, on the North Carolina coast, according to dispatch this afternoon from the Elizabeth City, N. C., station.

The schooner was laden with lumber, out of Jacksonville to Fairhaven, Mass. She is owned by a Jacksonville concern.

The men were taken off in surfboats, in charge of a picked crew of lifesavers after a hard battle to reach the disabled schooner.

Two Are Charged With Nine Year Old Unsolved Murder

One Of Pair Confesses Part In
R. R. Detective Murder,
Police Say

COLUMBUS, O., Feb. 5.—Two men were charged with the murder nine years ago of Charles E. Thurston, Pennsylvania Railroad detective, as the murdered man's famous brother, Howard Thurston the magician, opened a week's engagement here.

The men charged with the murder are Noah Burns, 40, and Robert Stone, 48, both of Columbus.

Burns, stung by a remorseless conscience, went to County Prosecutor John Chester last Saturday—nine years to the day that Charles Thurston's bullet-riddled body was found in the Pennsylvania Railroad yards here—confessed his part in the crime and named Stone as the man who fired the fatal shots. Stone was arrested a short time later.

Burns, accompanied by Rev. Elbert M. Sheldon, pastor of the church that Burns joined two years ago, told the whole story to Chester, saying he and Stone, both railroad employees at the time, were about to rob a box car when Thurston came upon them.

Through the help of the International Institute, located on Pennsylvania avenue, a branch of the Central Y. W. C. A., an effort is being made to secure employment for Mrs. Veronica Rzecznik of Smithfield street extension, whose husband disappeared so mysteriously about four weeks ago.

Mrs. Rzecznik would like to do cleaning or housework of any kind. The Institute can ably recommend her, as the superintendent of the Institute, Miss Moore, has been in her home and found it spotlessly clean. There are five children in the home. When their father left there was but 50 cents in the house.

Anyone who can give Mrs. Rzecznik work will please call the Institute, 4104, and they will get in touch with her.

ADJUSTING FIRE LOSSES:

A Fine Record of Fair Dealing

THE last licking flame has been quenched. The firemen have returned to their stations. Ashes—smoke—stains—water-soaked contents—then the adjuster.

All day long and every day the adjuster meets people who have sustained losses against which they were insured. Whether greeted cordially or gruffly, the adjuster must handle his problem with tact and fairness. The reputation of his company goes with him into every case.

During 1927 nearly a million reports of losses were filed with the Stock Fire Insurance companies. Ninety-nine and nine tenths percent of the claims arising from these loss reports were adjusted without resort to legal action; a splendid tribute to the fairness of the contracting parties—the public and the fire insurance companies.

It is the constant effort of the Stock Fire Insurance companies to employ only honest and competent adjusters, to the end that legitimate claims may be settled fairly in conformity with the rights of the interested parties.

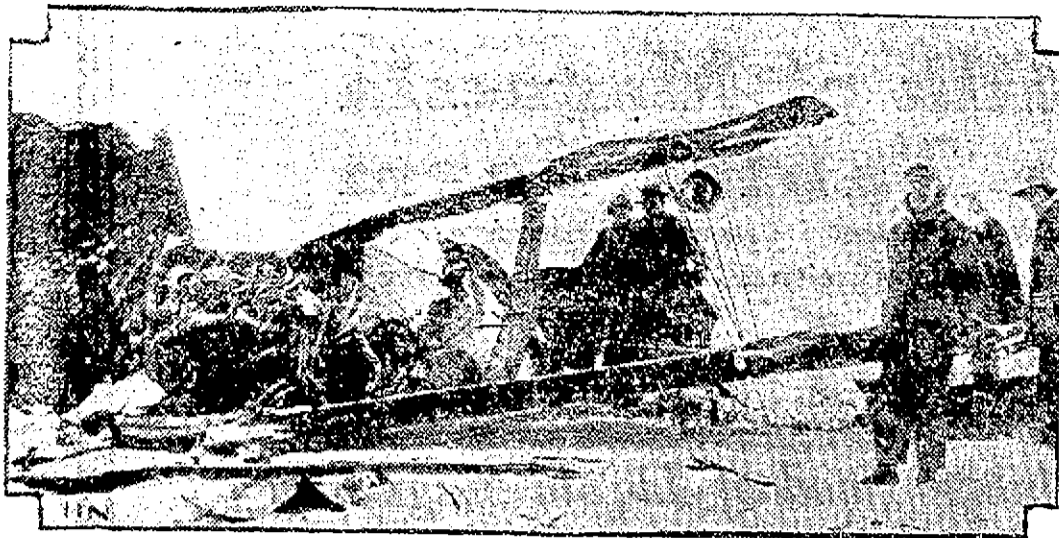

The adjuster is appraised by his ability to arrive at the proper amount of loss and to avoid claims originating from that enemy to society—the arsonist.

The public confidence in Stock Fire Insurance is in a large measure due to the fair dealing of its adjusters.

LOVE OR INFATUATION? - - By Laird

In courtship days lovers constantly ask each other, "Do you love me?" It were better if each asked themselves, "Do I really love, or is this a passing fancy, an infatuation of the moment?" Absence is said to make the heart grow fonder, but the acid test is in the presence, not the absence, of the beloved. Can I go through years and years of close companionship with this person at whom I am looking, seeing always that face across from me at the breakfast table, greeting me at night in prosperity and adversity? Physical attractiveness fails to charm, is not even noticed, when the horrible specters of poverty or sickness are stalking. The mind, the spirit, are what will then determine whether this man and woman make a success of their marriage venture or end it in disaster.

It's Growing!

The shoulder-length bob is taking a real place among fashions of the hour for the younger set. In many high schools and colleges, more than half the girls are letting their hair grow to the new length. This style is worn by New York City girls is shown in the above photograph of Miss Edna Rabbe, 1935 Avenue G, Brooklyn.

Miss Rabbe says: "I am certainly delighted that I let my hair grow to the new length now that I have found a way to keep it easily manageable and attractive. My hair is ever so much fluffier and more vigorous than it has been for a long time. And it is free from all traces of dandruff, now. I attribute its improvement to the method I am using to care for it. It's so popular among the girls in my set. All we do is put a little Danderine on our brushes whenever we use them. This makes my hair so easy to dress any way I want it and holds it in place as I arrange it. Danderine keeps my scalp and keeps it and my hair so clean. I don't need to shampoo more than twice a month, now. And all my friends admire the way it makes my hair so bright and sparkling."

Danderine does more to bring out the natural color, the gleam and lustre of your hair, than shampoos or brilliantine. It removes that oily film from it, gives it new life and lustre. It cleanses and invigorates the scalp; helps overcome dandruff. Danderine is delightfully fragrant; isn't oily, doesn't show. All drug stores have the generous 35c bottles.

Quick Work By Police In Theft

ELLWOOD CITY, Feb. 5.—A thrilling feature of the regular monthly meeting of the J. Wilbur Randolph post of the American Legion which met Monday evening in the Legion rooms, was the mock trial brought by comrade Randolph L. Laker, acting as District Attorney, against Lou Edelman and Clem Hayes, on a mock charge of misappropriation of Legion funds at the recent convention. The two defendants were counseled by Attorney Maurice Krause and in the heated debate that followed, the testimony of the witnesses, Woodie Thompson, Dr. B. M. Lawther and Dr. Fred Saxson, overbalanced the fiscal oratory of Attorney Laker, and the jury finally brought in a verdict of "not guilty." Judge Patterson of New Castle presided on the bench.

ELLWOOD CITY, Feb. 5.—Harold Morrison son of Mr. and Mrs. F. B. Morrison of Spring avenue is a happy lad to be again in possession of his gold plated horn which was quietly "borrowed" without his knowledge yesterday. The pretty shiny instrument has been the envy of many a boy in school.

George Davis of Ellwood City was placed in the county jail last night on a charge of selling liquor.

Davis was arrested by the Ellwood City police after the death of Earl White who died suddenly after partaking of some liquor which it is alleged was purchased from Davis. A post-mortem held on White showed that it was not the liquor but a greatly enlarged heart that had caused his death so that there is no charge against Davis so far as responsibility for the death of White is concerned. This is the second time that Davis has been an inmate of the Lawrence county jail.

Ellwood High At Butler Tonight

ELLWOOD CITY, Feb. 5.—Ellwood City High basketball team will have a stiff tussle tonight at Butler. The Leemen are scheduled to oppose the strong Butlers in a Section III contest.

Coach Peck Lee has forgiven the "erring sons" and tonight the Blue and White team will be at full strength when they tackle the Bernlohr coached cohorts. Lee believes that the locals were rather well punished for their indifferent playing at Evans City recently. The first five regulars viewed the recent New Castle-Ellwood City game from the sidelines.

The players petitioned Lee for reinstatement, and the big coach agreed to give the boys another chance.

The Butler-Ellwood game tonight will have an important bearing on the sectional race. Ellwood still has a mathematical chance to cop the gonfalon. Ellwood City will start the game tonight with King and Priedoff at the forwards, Ursu at center and Justine and Dunn at the guards.

GET NEW PET.

HIGH LIGHTS OF HISTORY

By J. Carroll Mansfield

The Story Of American Industry
New England Turns To Manufacturing

THE WAR OF 1812 DEALT A CRUSHING BLOW TO THE AMERICAN MERCHANT MARINE. OUR FRIGATES WON MANY GLORIOUS VICTORIES AND OUR PRIVATEERS TOOK MANY PRIZES, BUT THE BRITISH BLOCKADE PUT AN END TO OUR TRADE WITH EUROPE AND PARALYZED OUR COMMERCE. DEPRIVED OF HER TRADING ENTERPRISES, NEW ENGLAND TURNED TO TEXTILE MANUFACTURING.

BOYCOTT AND BLOCKADE HAD STOPPED THE IMPORTATION OF ENGLISH CLOTH, AND THE ONLY WAY THE GREAT DEMAND FOR TEXTILES COULD BE MET WAS BY DOMESTIC PRODUCTION. THE SOUTH, WHICH HAD BEEN RAISING LARGER CROPS OF COTTON EACH YEAR FOR THE ENGLISH MILLS, LOOKED HOPEFULLY TO NEW ENGLAND FOR A NEW MARKET FOR ITS PRODUCT.

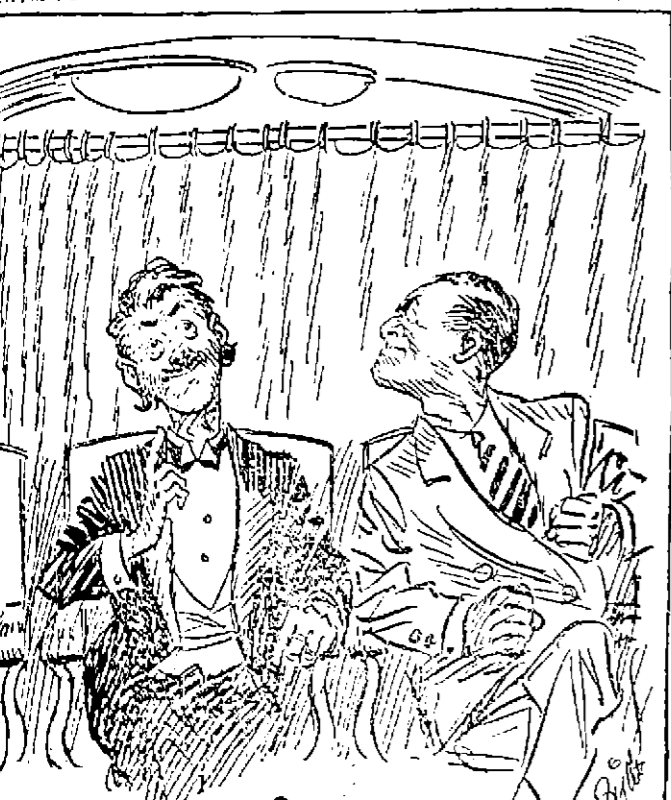

COMPANIES WERE FORMED, FACTORIES BUILT AND THE GREAT WATER POWER RESOURCES OF NEW ENGLAND PUT TO WORK. IN 1814, FRANCIS CABOT LOWELL, BOSTON MERCHANT, INVENTED THE FIRST POWER LOOM IN AMERICA. BEFORE THAT TIME, THE YARN HAD BEEN SPUN IN THE MILLS, AND WOVEN INTO CLOTH IN THE HOMES. IT WAS NOW POSSIBLE TO COMBINE ALL THE PROCESSES FOR MAKING COTTON CLOTH IN ONE FACTORY.

THE TEXTILE INDUSTRY THRIVED IN NEW ENGLAND, AND MANY OF THE TOWNS THAT SPANG UP AROUND THE MILLS SOON BECAME FLOURISHING CITIES. AFTER THE WAR WAS ENDED AND PEACE RESTORED, THE ENGLISH CLOTH MANUFACTURERS TRIED TO RECLAIM THE AMERICAN MARKET BY UNDER-SELLING OUR FACTORIES, BUT THOUGH MANY FIRMS FAILED, THE AMERICAN INDUSTRY WEATHERED THIS STORM OF COMPETITION.

TOMORROW—EARLY METHODS OF PRODUCING POWER.

Seventh Victory For Lawthermen

Westminster College Basketball Team Outplays Allegheny Monday Night

CROWELL-T. LEWIS LEADING SCORERS

BY "BUGS" WALTHER
NEW WILMINGTON, Pa., Feb. 5.—Playing a whirlwind game, the Westminster College basketball team last night at the New Wilmington gym gave Allegheny College a severe pasting, 36 to 12. It was a non-conference game. Westminster has now won seven and lost one this year. The Meadville quintet never once threatened the Titans.

Recently at Meadville the Allegheny team threw a big scare into the Lawthermen by holding them to a 27 to 26 victory. Last night on the local floor, the United Presbyterians proved to the satisfaction of a filled house just why they have to be taken seriously this year when one starts considering great teams. Allegheny didn't throw any scares on Monday night. It was a badly demoralized blue and gold quintet that wandered aimlessly over the big Westminster court, and got nowhere by their wanderings.

The Lawther coached warriors opened up with an attack in the first five minutes of play that took the wind out of the invaders, and before the fans had time to really get settled in their seats, the Westminsterers had hung up several points. Crowell started the scoring with a foul and "Kenny" Delahunty a few seconds later caged one of those sensational side-court shots that fell through the hoops as true as the nose to the target. "Plumber" with a lead to spur them on, the Westminster crew soon opened up with the fireworks, and it was near pathetic to watch the Alleghenians try to cope with the attack that the blue and white passers shoved forward.

At the end of the first half the score stood at 21 to 5 in favor of Westminster and all question as to the ultimate winners had been erased. Tudor Lewis, Crowell and Delahunty did the scoring for Westminster in the first half. Dennison and Garback tallied for Allegheny. Rice, the "blonde" from Duquesne high, played a bangup defensive game the first half and drew up with three personal fouls for the stanza. Berger for the visitors had three fouls the first half. Both Rice and Berger were chased early in the second half via the four foul ruling.

Resume Scoring.
Failing to accept the healthy score that they had piled up in the first half as concrete proof of victory, the Westminster team began peppering the hoops at the start of the second half.

Crowell started the scoring with a long basket from mid-court, then Tudor Lewis heaved one through and Crowell duplicated his stunt, and Lewis came right back to score again, sending the total to 28 to 5. At this stage of the game Philip Rice was ejected and Fisher took up the burden for Westminster.

The first scoring effort by Allegheny in the second half came about five minutes after the half started when Dennison caged a foul. Delahunty annexed another of those famous side-court shots and Westminster led 30 to 6.

Tudor Lewis made good on a foul try and Garback caged a free throw for the invaders. O'Donovan dropped through a foul and gave Westminster the lead at 32 to 7. Delahunty came through with another long heave that dropped "home". Massing replaced Berger for Allegheny. The former Homestead boy had played a hard game and was out on fouls.

One Field Goal.
Allegheny's only field goal in the second half came when Garback went down the floor fast and dropped one through from beneath the basket. Imagine if you can the kind of a defensive game that the Westminster team played, holding Allegheny to one basket in 20 minutes of playing, especially after the dire threats that went out from the Methodist camp after that thrilling encounter at Meadville.

Yes, sir, Westminster's defense was again functioning, as attested to by Messrs. Blair, Dennison, etc.

Ciesynski replaced Tudor Lewis for Westminster near the close of the second half. Garback made a foul for Allegheny that gave the visitors ten points. Brownlee, a new product of Westminster, towering 6 feet 6 1/2 inches in height, replaced Crowell for the Lawthermen, and the Lock Haven boy received a fine ovation as he ambled onto the court. Massing and good a pair of four tries for Allegheny, ending the scoring as Allegheny was concerned. W Lewis relieved Delahunty and caged a foul, and Ciesynski ended the scoring for Westminster with a foul.

No Individual Stars.
There just wasn't any individual star for Westminster. The entire team played a great game of basketball and deserved the praise that was showered upon them by hundreds of cheering fans. For Allegheny the playing of Dennison, Garback and Berger was the best. Coach Baker has a find in that youngster Massing, who was used as a substitute, and why the Meadville boy is not playing regular is a mystery to the writer.

It was another big night for Westminster in basketball, but this is getting to be a common occurrence at the local gym. Westminster has not been beaten at home yet, and the writer is willing to gamble that the Lawthermen will go through the remainder of the schedule without a blemish. As basketball teams go Westminster is "it" this year.

The Summary:
Westminster 36. Allegheny 12.
O'Donovan (c) Blair, Dennison, Crowell, Ciesynski, Garback, Rice, Ciesynski, Brownlee, W. Lewis, Kocher, Allegheny: Moon, Massing, Mills, Lane.

Field Goals—D'Onovan 4, Delahunty 4, Crowell 4, T. Lewis 5, Dennison, Garback 2.
Fouls—Westminster 8 out of 11, Allegheny 6 out of 17.
Referee—Hannum.
Umpire—Brickley.

Temples And Ricks Win Floor Games

Temples Defeat Presbyterians 31-10; Rick Motors Top Knickerbockers 48-34

The Temple Israel basketball team defeated the Central Presbyterians 31 to 10, and the Rick Motors defeated the Knickerbockers 48 to 34 in games played at the Y. M. C. A. floor on Monday night.

In the Church League game the Temples led the Central Presbyterians 19 to 2 at the first half. The leading scorers were S. Levine, E. Solomon, and Rogovin.

The Rick Motors did not have any trouble in downing the Knickerbockers. The score at half time favored the Ricks 27 to 14. The playing of Franklin was brilliant, this youngster caging eight baskets, six of them in the final half. Volesko also played well for the winners. For the Knickerbockers the work of Mancine, Sergeant, and Kroen featured.

The Summary:

Kline To Ask Boyle For Outside Referee

After Evans And Kline Kiss And Make Up, Manager Says He Is Opposed To New Castle Man As Referee; Tri-State Officials To Swell Crowd Which Has Already Commenced Siege For Choice Tickets

By ED. FRITZ
Miami can have its Shurkey-Stribling; New Castle will take an Evans-Firpo, and the fan who doesn't receive an eyeful of action when the middleweights battle February 18 will have only himself to blame for his loss.

To match Evans and Firpo required considerable patience and diplomacy. They have been at odds for a year. Both desired larger monetary slices than usually paid at the bowl, and the weight question had to be overcome.

The word "piker" isn't in Bill Joel's dictionary, so he said, "Give 'em what they want", and the fighters let the writer determine the question of weight, after which Jimmie Dunn signed Firpo's name and Ed. Kline accepted the bout in behalf of Evans.

Kline and Evans engaged in a controversy and after 48 hours' work, with the aid of Mrs. Evans, pretty bride of Dick, we succeeded not only in patching up the argument between Kline and Dick, but got Dick's signature to the articles.

Everything Looks Rosette
Under the article terms Firpo and Dick agree to meet at the bowl February 18. They will weigh 153 pounds at three o'clock on the afternoon of the bout. Firpo battles best at 162 and Evans can make 158 pounds.

Firpo announced through Dunn that he would train at Cleveland. Evans will train at Youngstown and New Castle. Firpo will be handled by Dunn, as usual, and Ed. Kline will have sole charge of Evans. The referee question, however, is not yet settled.

Kline does not believe that a New Castle man should referee. He was told that the Jolly Bowl has nothing to do with selection of judges or referees. "Mr. Boyle, commissioner, names all officials," he was informed. "All right, I'll write Boyle," Kline stated.

Owing to the sharp rivalry between Firpo and Evans it is not likely that Commissioner Boyle will name the referee or judges until a few minutes before the bell rings. It may come to pass that the commissioner himself may personally supervise the bout.

Both Liked and Disliked
Evans will train with Walter Plicks, light-heavyweight, at Youngstown. He said he would also come here before the fight and show the fans that he will be in tiptop condition for Firpo. Evans, it will be recalled, has trained here with Emmett Rocco.

Firpo has been a hated and despised fighter here. Evans occupies a similar position in Youngstown. Firpo, however, will have the backing of a large number of local fans and the fact that he is a local boy which follows him to every ring where he performs.

Firpo has been boxing sensationally. Evans has stood forth as the best middleweight the tri-state section has had since the death of the middleweight champion, Harry Greb. The Evans-Firpo match is a "big shot" for the Jolly Bowl and it will be jammed.

The seating arrangement at the bowl has been changed. It now is possible to seat another thousand fans. There are no posts to block the visions of the fans.

Officials of cities in the tri-state section and some social leaders will be at the bout. During the summer it was no strange sight to see fashionably gown ladies in the audience. At the last bout there were many present.

Evans is a smart, cultured boxer, one who does not show any of the trademarks of the ring. He has no "tin ears". This is a long, lean boy who hasn't a scar, which goes to prove that he has not yet been damaged by punch.

Wild Bill Mehlhorn Wins South Central Kerr, Hanley To Pick All-East

Wild Bill Mehlhorn added another laurel to his bag yesterday at Hot Springs by capturing the South Central open fly title. After trying Bobby Cruikshank and Horton Smith with a 72 hole card of 250, Sunday, Bill played off for the title with a 70, two below par, two strokes ahead of Smith.

Andy Kerr, W and J, and Dick Hanley, Northwestern, have accepted the 1929 task of picking and choosing the All-East eleven for the game against the All-West in the Shriners benefit at San Francisco next December. It will be the third year Kerr and Hanley have assembled the All-East. The games stand even now.

Two All-Around Stars

By QUIN HALL
It may be a sock in the beak for romance in sport but it cannot be truthfully said that every great hockey player was born with a puck in his fist or that every great baseball player came into life wearing a fielder's mitt on his paw. Neither can it be dodged that every great billiard star first saw the light of day, watched in a green felt bag, might be added a certain glamor if it were possible to refer to such occurrences as the truth but it isn't possible so it's rather foolhardy to try to kind ourselves.

On the contrary it is possible to cite many instances where the outstanding stars of certain sports today have been mixed up in other sports before they finally found their niches and got to a place where the fans started to talk about them.

There are two cases which come to mind right off hand.

Take for instance Johnny Layton who recently for the fifth time kept the three-cushion billiard championship when he defeated Willie Hoppe for the title at Orchestra Hall, Chicago. It might add romance to Layton if it were possible to say that Johnny used a billiard cue for a teething ring back in the days when his father used to walk the floor with him. But such isn't the case. Johnny was born in Stewardson, Illinois and his first job was as a carpenter. Measuring angles with a square during his carpentry duties may have aided him in laying a foundation for angles on a green table but before he became famous as a billiardist his history shows that he was a jockey, a professional ball player, a boxer, a pro wrestler, a trapshooter and expert fly-catcher. Glamor enough but it wasn't all centered around the cue game.

But after a shot at all of those sporting activities Johnny blossomed forth as a billiardist and has worked his way up to the peak of fame on the green tables. Layton incidentally is one of four men who have held both the pocket and angle titles. He won the pocket title in 1916.

Jumping from the green tables to ice we will take up the case of Lionel Conacher the defense star of the New York American hockey team. While he is now an outstanding figure in the ice sport and while only a short time ago the Toronto Maple Leafs offered the Americans $25,000 for him he has not always been active in hockey.

Once upon a time Conacher was a boxer. Then he took up baseball and lacrosse and gained quite a little fame as an outfielder. He diversified his sporting activities considerably before he finally decided to specialize in hockey and when a rival team thinks he is worth $25,000 it can be assumed that he has reached stardom in his finally chosen line.

The star-spangled Americans have been making great progress in the International League this season and no small share of their success is credited to the work of Conacher.

The Conacher family is noted for athletic ability although Lionel can't recall that his father was ever active in sports. He has two twin sisters Nora and Cathleen 17 years of age who are soft-ball (indoor baseball) experts and they play with the Supremes in Toronto. They are battery mates. In addition Conacher has a cousin Grace who is an all-around

Westminster-Bethany Clash Friday Night May Settle Leadership

NEW WILMINGTON, Pa., Feb. 5.—With eight games of the 17-game schedule now a matter of history, Westminster's harassed basketball quintet is pointing to a tri-state conference tilt here Friday night with Bethany college. In conference competition, Westminster has won two and lost one. Bethany, defeating Geneva last night, is one of the leading teams of the whole tri-state district.

Last year Lawther's Westminster passers experienced little difficulty in defeating Bethany both at Bethany and at New Wilmington. In fact, Westminster has defeated the Bisons four times on the court in two years. But as things stack up this year, the Titans will be fortunate if they can break even with the West Virginia boys.

The fact that Bethany is now on a road trip, playing Geneva last night and Thiel tonight, does not change the situation any. Following tonight's game at Greenville, the Bisons will camp somewhere in this vicinity and rest up until Friday. Following the game here Friday night, Bethany journeys to Meadville Saturday to meet Allegheny. Although this four-game road trip is a pretentious one, it is to be noted that the Bisons have arranged a two-day rest period between the Thiel and the Westminster encounters.

With Duquesne practically out of the championship running and with Bethany and Geneva standing high, Westminster will have to win the five conference games still on the schedule to win the championship. When it is remembered that Geneva defeated Westminster at Beaver Falls and that Bethany stands in the way, not to mention the return game with Duquesne at Pittsburgh later in the season, it can be seen that Lawther's

HERE AND THERE IN SPORTS' LAND

By ED. FRITZ

Battling Terry, former lightweight champion of Western Pennsylvania, believes that he has a good four round fight in him. He said yesterday, "I'm only 38 but can whip all of these whippersnackers," said the battler. "Call on me if Jolly needs a 128 pounder."

Terry's words brought back memories of 15 years ago when he was a 140-lb. fighter. He fought ten all and whipped more than twenty of them. He says he keeps in shape by boxing daily and is now developing a young Polish boy who he believes will go good at 145 pounds.

Articles of agreement have been sent to Nick Polk at Woodlawn. He is being paged to battle Maxie Brown. Nick has been having everything his own way around here. Maxie doesn't hit as hard but does punch more of ten and is more clever than Elmo.

Walter Pickard, who looks like a good 170 pounder wants to box Jack Munroe of Pittsburgh. If their weight jibe up they may ramp in one of the short rounded bouts. Young Guido and Tommy Malco are featured for the first six rounder.

How Elmo got his "tin ear" is easily explained. Elmo always wanted one. He got a chance to box Tom Farrow at Oil City and Tom gave it to Elmo. The blood was not let out as the ear was not lanced. Nick Polk lanced it with a boxing glove.

When the punch landed on Elmo's right ear the organ acted like a water filled rubber ball. "Z-z-z-z-z!" sounded the ear. A small stream of blood squirted to the top of the lights. Only the initiated knew what occurred. Elmo didn't even stop rushing.

Dick Evans and Henry Firpo like each other like two babies fighting for the same bottle. They are not what might be termed enemies but they are bitter rival rivals. The beauty is both can box, punch and are smart. Scidom two such boys meet.

Jimmie Dunn will get a chance to pull his tie. Everytime Dunn gets excited he yanks his tie. The night that Hybert bit Firpo's ear, he almost choked himself to death. He did not have to tug his tie the next time.

Dave Valensi, one of the boys who helped to keep the Italian Athletic association on the sporting pages of the Tri-State section is no longer the president of the New Castle Baseball club. Dave served eight conscientious and troublesome years.

There was nothing that Dave would not do to make the club a success. He gave his time and money. He labored physically for the success of the team but stepped out a few weeks ago. Dave will be missed even though the good old boy, Pete Capitola succeeded him.

Like Dave, Pete is a hustler. He is willing to play the game up and up with everybody. He has been with the I. A. A. since it was originated more than a score of years ago. He is facing a tempestuous year. The club has a big investment and something must be done.

The club sunk at least $25,000 in the ball park. They have not made any money for several years. They have had good ball clubs but last year was a disastrous season, financially. However, Pete is foresighted and may probably spring a surprise some of these days.

In fact it wouldn't be surprising were Pete to set up some time in the near future and announce that the grounds have been rented to some up and coming baseball manager who will have a good team. With good games a percentage would bring a fair rental.

Bill Chill is our friend but he wants to get us killed off, we believe. He has been asking us to call Frank Colo a few names and to take a couple of jobs at Ernie Palus the minstrel men. J. V. Bullano is another chap who will strut around with the Tigers.

Several members of the police department are inclined pugilistically. Tommy Jones is a judge at the boxing bouts and recently James Steiner and Robert Lateria took out licenses to second boxers. Most all boxers who come here have their own seconds.

Tommy Jones was one of the best lightweights in the Tri-State district 15 years ago and may oppose the sobriety handed to Terry—ex-lightweight champ of Western Pennsylvania. If it means anything we can soon tack that after Tom's name.

For two years Tommy and the writer motored to all the battles in this section. Truthfully speaking I don't believe we ever agreed on one decision unless it was a one-sided bout. Our time riding was occupied by arguing and Tommy's no mean opponent in that either.

Jimmie Steiner was in the navy. He boxed a dozen or more times. After his return to New Castle he romped a couple times in the Coliseum. Jimmie was not physically strong for his weight but he was game and stood up under punishment.

Bob Lateria, a big strapping boy of probably 185, fought George Perotta at the open air theater at Cascade Park. It recollection serves correctly he sustained a broken hand or a rib and we had to stop the battle.
